Due to the current pandemic in which large gatherings are still not allowed and that social distancing is to be followed, the celebration was made simple yet a memorable one.

The celebration highlighted the significance and relevance of the Memorial of the Beheading of St. John the Baptist to the Installation of the Lectors and Acolytes. The homily of Fr. Roy Millano, SMM was very inspiring. Despite the pandemic, he emphasized on how the new lectors and acolytes may still be able to exercise their ministry since parish involvement may be difficult, yet there are still other opportunities to serve. Before the final blessing, Fr. Benjie A. Notarte, SMM, thanked the community for their presence and support especially to the new lectors and acolytes as they start their new ministry in living out the Word of God and proclaiming it to the people, and in serving the Lord in the Liturgical Celebrations. Everyone then gave a thundering applause.

After the Eucharistic Celebration, everyone proceeded to the dining area for a simple lunch together. It was indeed a meaningful celebration despite the pandemic, praising the Lord through Mary, in the footsteps of the poor apostles and with Father de Montfort.

Glory to God Alone!
