The journey began with forty-seven enthusiastic participants, and after weeks of spiritual growth and dedication, forty individuals successfully completed the program.

The Consecration Day commenced with a solemn and sacred ceremony. Each participant made a personal promise, placing both hands on the Holy Scriptures, followed by lighting and kissing a candle as they recited and renewed their baptismal vows. The highlight of the event was the Holy Eucharist celebrated at the altar, symbolizing the participants' dedication to their faith.

The Consecration and Holy Mass were presided over by Rev. Fr. Federick YUMANG, SMM with Rev. Fr. Samuel GONZALEZ, SMM, and Rev. Fr. Armel COLLANTES, SMM, as concelebrants. The event was attended not only by the participants' families but also by members of TTJ and AMQAH Associates.
